Vegetable Men In Glades Hold Meet

Allen Rains of Washington, D. C., national secretary of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association, was guest speaker at the first meeting of the Everglades Branch of the Association held at Bell's Restaurant Tuesday night. The local group was formerly known as the Everglades Branch of the National League of Wholesale Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Distributors before the League was absorbed into the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association last month.

Mr. Rains showed a motion picture relating to the retail merchandising of fresh fruits and vegetables and gave a talk on the problems of the fruit and vegetable industry. He welcomed the Everglades Branch into the Association.

Homer J. Clause of the Everglades Growers Cooperative, Pahokee, and Frank Anderson of the Everglades Produce Company, South Bay, who represented the Everglades Branch at the recent convention in which the National League was absorbed by the United Association, gave reports on convention activities.

The group voted to have President Jesse M. Elliott appoint a committee to confer with Glades vegetable packers and shippers for the purpose of seeing what can be done about eliminating free top ice now being furnished on vegetable shipments. This committee will report its findings at a meeting in the near future.

Carolina Farmers Visit Glades Area

Approximately 75 North Carolina farmers and agricultural officials Tuesday toured the county's Everglades agricultural area and expressed admiration for production and marketing practices.

They also heard H. C. Gee, consulting engineer for the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District describe the Central and Southern Florida project for flood control and water conservation.

L. Y. Ballentine, North Carolina state commissioner of agriculture stated "This is the first of large groups tours of this area," adding that "there were four or five that visited last year." He stated there is large-spread interest among Tarheel State farmers to improve production and marketing practices, especially in vegetables and citrus.

"Cattle production in Florida has grown tremendously," he observed.

Included in the group visiting here was Davis S. Weaver, director of extension service in North

Port Mayaca Folks Hurt In Car Wreck

Mrs. Edna Brandon of Port Mayaca and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Waits, suffered severe injuries in a car accident which occurred approximately 20 miles north of Canal Point at 5 p. m. Sunday afternoon. The Waits's seven-month-old son, Jerry, the only other passenger, escaped injury.

Two cars were involved in the accident. The group was returning from Alabama to their home in Port Mayaca in two cars, with Mr. Waits driving the lead car and Mrs. Waits guiding the second, which was in tow. Between Okeechobee and Port Mayaca the cars went out of control and turned over.

Mrs. Brandon and Mr. and Mrs. Waits were taken in Berry's ambulance to the Everglades Memorial Hospital for treatment.

5700 Acres Glades Will Be Reclaimed

TALLAHASSEE — Trustees of the state internal improvement fund gave tentative approval Tuesday to a plan to finance reclamation of 5,700 acres of Everglades in Palm Beach county and lease it to J. Ray Arnold of Groveland for enough to pay off the drainage costs and show a rental profit in 20 years.

Fred Elliott, secretary for the II board, said it would take from $315,000 to $400,000 to drain the land. The state would get no rent the first year, an average of $8 an acre for the next nine years and $10 an acre for the next 10 years.

He said after amortization of the reclamation cost, the state would net an average of $3 an acre for the first 10 years and $4.72 an acre for the second 10 years.

Arnold would put up $35,000 in good faith money.

Pahokee Insurance Group To Be Honored

Life Insurance Company of Georgia representatives in the Glades will be honored tonight when the President's Trophy is presented to the Pahokee district group at a banquet at Cleveland Inn. The Pahokee district won the trophy for producing the most new business of any of 150 districts in 11 states, according to C. A. Batchelor, manager.

The company president, R. H. Dobbs of Atlanta and A. L. Coffey Sr., vice president of Jacksonville, will be among the notables present. A. L. Coffey, Jr., zone manager of Miami will also be present as will be E. H. Richardson, division manager with offices in West Palm Beach. Since this was to be Mr. Matherly's only official visit to the district, representatives of the 11 lodges making up the district were present at the meeting to hear Matherly's report on the program of the State Elks Association.

Frank O'Connell, exalted ruler of the Pahokee Lodge, and his staff of initiation officers carried through initiation work for a class of three candidates for membership.

At the conclusion of the meeting a barbecue was enjoyed by approximately 300, with Emmett P. Holt in charge of arrangements. The Pahokee Lodge was assisted in the entertaining by the Belle Glade Lodge, co-host.

Chief Leon Guthrie Seeks Re-Election

Chief of Police Leon Guthrie of Pahokee will be a candidate to succeed himself in the coming city election, he said this week. Chief Guthrie qualified with City Clerk Clyde Alley last week. He is serving out his first two year term. "I am asking for re-election to the office of chief strictly on the record I have made while serving the people of Pahokee. I shall continue, when re-elected, to carry out the duties of my office in an efficient and courteous manner. I shall be grateful for everyone's consideration of my candidacy for this important office in Pahokee city government."

Business Men Give Talks To Students

Senior and Junior students at Pahokee High School are being given an opportunity to compare various ways of making a living in a series of talks on "Democracy" by guest speakers, according to Principal Clyde A. Canipe. Professional and business men are scheduled to give talks on their ways of making a living every Friday from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

The series of talks started Friday afternoon when H. L. Speer, assistant agriculture agent of Palm Beach County, explained the work being done by employees of the State Department of Agriculture, with emphasis on the extension phase of the department's varied activities. He said one of the most important duties of the department's extension workers is the introduction to the public of new improved methods arrived at in the experimental fields and research laboratories.

At the conclusion of his talk Mr. Speer urged the students to investigate thoroughly the various vocations that have attracted their interest before making the final decision.

This Friday afternoon the guest speaker will be Dick Parrish, proprietor of the Parrish Jewelry Shop, who will give a talk on the jewelry and watch repairing business. In addition to the Seniors and Juniors, the public is invited to hear these talks.

Those who will be in charge of registering voters have been efficiently trained for their work in the office of the supervisor of registration in West Palm Beach. Any technical questions the voters have in regard to registration can be answered by the workers.

"Under the law, voters who participated in the election four years ago do not have to re-register," Rardin said. "Newcomers and folks who have moved from one precinct to another should be sure and put their names on the books and qualify to vote," the county commissioner concluded.

News Notes From State Capital

TALLAHASSEE—The major political scene was enlivened this week by the possibility of Jerry W. Carter, veteran member of the state railroad and public utilities commission, entering the race for governor. Qualification deadline is March 15. Carter also is national Democratic committeeman from Florida. He said many people and groups have urged him to get in, but he is reserving his decision. In another major development, a federal grand jury in Tallahassee indicted Bill Hendrix, self styled Klan leader in Florida, for violating U. S. postal law by sending "libelous and defamatory" matter through the mails. Hendrix is an announced candidate for governor but he has not qualified. He will be tried in this term of federal court now sitting in Tallahassee.

TALLAHASSEE—A recent law requiring inspection of all meat slaughtered in Florida has brought a sharp division in the State Livestock Sanitary Board and a call for help from Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo. The board has divided 4 and 4 on the subject of further enforcement of the meat inspection act. Commissioner Mayo has asked the Florida press to inform the public that his department does not inspect slaughtered meat under the act. He reported that many small farmers and slaughterers have complained to him that the law is unfair to them, and asked him to do something about it, when his office is not authorized by law to do so.

TALLAHASSEE—Attorney General Richard W. Ervin this week gave his opinion on the following general subjects:

LOTTERY—Newspaper printing football list and giving prizes for winners selected violates lottery law.

PARSONAGE—Where pastor rents a room in a parsonage to third person, the parsonage still is entitled to tax exemption.

BORROWING—Security law applies to promises of bonus and payment, with mortgage loan sought in newspaper ad for dolomite mine property.

ELEVATORS—Stair-travelers which are motor driven cars operated along a stairway are elevators and should be inspected by the state.

WARDENS—Game wardens have the right to go on posted land on official business.

VETERINARIANS—Law does not permit applicant who fails veterinary examination to be given license to practice.

SCHOOL—Where instruction is given crippled children in hospital, this constitutes a school under the law.

ARREST—Police officer may prefer charges of reckless driving in auto accident case even though he didn't witness accident.

BOATS—Boats are personal property for purposes of taxation.

TALLAHASSEE—Alfred McKethan, chairman of the state road department, has instructed the personnel director of the department to drop from the payroll all road department employees who offer for public office. This is in line with the spirit of the law, he pointed out, which prohibits state employees from taking active parts in political campaigns. However, he added, he urged all his workers to vote, and said they will be given time off for that purpose.

TALLAHASSEE—No mercy will be shown violators of the auto license tag law after February 20, is the warning of State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arch Livingston. Tags this year went on sale January 5 instead of December 1, as under the old law. The new deadline will be observed by all inspectors for the tag department.

TALLAHASSEE—More than a million dollars in cigarette taxes collected in January will be sent back to cities to help reduce their taxes, says State Beverage Director Lewis M. Schott. His office is distributing checks totaling $1,119,761, some of which goes to general revenue, but the most to cities, ranging from $196,587 to Miami down to $3.42 to Belle Vista Beach, the smallest.

TALLAHASSEE—Praises for the work of the state cabinet members was voiced by Governor Fuller Warren as the aftermath of a series of meetings in which good will was predominant. The governor said the six cabinet officers over whom he presides has conducted the state's business as frugally and efficiently as the directors of any private business. He noted that he and four others—attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer and comptroller—are not involved in the current election, and the other two, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of agriculture, have only "token" opposition.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Fresh talented newcomers is what the movie-going-public is continually asking for—and that is what the producers are constantly on the lookout for. One of the latest sensations in the line of top-flight stars is Suzanne Cloutier. Miss Cloutier rocketed to fame in her role in the film "Desdemona", an Orson Welles goody. The little lady is now slated for some choice roles, according to Hollywood movie makers. Dorothy Lamour and Arlene Dahl are receiving special plaques from their alma mater, Marshall Field's Department Store, this month. The store wishes to honor its former employees for their success on the silver screen. Arlene worked as a model and Dorothy as an elevator girl in the store. Incidentally Doty is still going up, but as a real artist in the film, "Greatest Show On Earth." Comedian Jack Benny is thinking of bringing a new brand of comedy into the night club circuit shortly. He is planning a personal tour—but not in the Maxwell, and perhaps without Rochester. Marilyn Maxwell and Rock Hudson are so very much together these off nights, folks are beginning to talk. Jane Wyman and Travis Kleefeld, (never heard of him) are keeping the gossips busy buzzing about their running about together. But it may be that they are keeping company without any serious intentions. See you at the movies—Mal.

Netters Eliminated

Coach Bill Howard's Pahokee Blue Devil basketball team was eliminated by Stuart, 52-38, in the first round of the Suncoast Conference Basketball Tournament at Delray Beach Thursday night of last week. The Blue Devil's rangy center, Carney Wilder, tossed seven field goals and two free throws for 16 of Pahokee's 33 points. In the finals Saturday night the Vero Beach Indians upset the defending champions, the Lake Worth Trojans, to win the 1952 title.

Cub Scouts Will Have Celebration

Members of the Pahokee Cub Scout Pack 23 and their parents will observe the 18th anniversary of cub scouts with a blue and gold banquet in the Pahokee Lions Hall this Friday night, Feb. 22, according to James T. Holden, cubmaster. Mrs. J. T. Holden, Mrs. Norman Kennedy and Mrs. Corley Watson, den mothers, are on the committee in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. E. I. Jaudon of Bradenton is the house guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wiley Tillis, and family. On Wednesday Mrs. Jaudon and Mrs. Tillis visited Mrs. Jaudon's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stollenborg, in West Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Shirley had as guests over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Abbott of Rockford, Ohio.

Jiggs Gets Four "Hot-Foots"

Cappy Miller's bought himself a new car. We won't be seeing his old jalopy bouncing over the back roads any more. I'm going to miss it, too.

Many a morning Cappy and I drove off in that rattletrap for a day's hunting or fishing. We'd pile rods or guns in back, and prop open the trunk compartment—so Jiggs, Cappy's pointer, could jump in and go along.

They say when Cappy brought the new car home he opened up the hood to show off the engine—and poor old Jiggs hopped right in! Figured it was the trunk. He hopped right out in a hurry, too. That cylinder head was mighty hot.

From where I sit, old habits are hard to shake, once they get a hold. Like, for instance, too many people are still in the habit of trying to run their neighbors' lives—telling them how to act, what to wear, whether or not to enjoy a refreshing glass of beer. I say that kind of thinking's outmoded... ought to be turned in for a new model!

Miss Jones Weds Kenneth Johnson

Miss Dellona Martin Jones, daughter of Mrs. C. B. Jones of Canal Point, became the bride of Kenneth Ferrell Johnson of Clewiston at the Canal Point Baptist Church Friday, Feb. 15, at 6 p. m.

Vows for the candlelight, double ring ceremony were read by the Rev. Clifford J. Smyly, pastor of the church, as the couple stood before the altar which was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli against a background of greenery and palms and flanked by branched candelabra bearing lighted white tapers.

The ceremony was preceded by a program of nuptial music presented by Miss Gay Hamrick of Tallahassee, pianist, and Miss Dellah Ashmore of Tallahassee, vocalist, who sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Alton Jones, wore a gown of white satin with fitted bodice and full skirt with short train. The high neckline was fastened with a roll collar and there were tiny satin-covered buttons down the front and on the long sleeves which were pointed at the wrists. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a tiara of illusion net. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid and a spread of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Charles H. Jones, sister-in-law of the bride and matron of honor, wore a full-length gown of rose pink taffeta with matching headdress of illusion net and a heart-shaped nosegay of white carnations.

The bride's other attendants, Miss Gloria Henderson, bridesmaid, and Mrs. A. Eugene Funderburk, were in taffeta gowns of Copenhagen blue and their heart-shaped nosegays were made of pink flowers. The gowns of all the attendants were fashioned similarly to that of the bride.

James Sims was Mr. Johnson's best man. Theodore Robert Johnson and Hueston Connell acted as ushers.

Mrs. Jones chose for her daughter's wedding dress of shadow lace navy blue with navy blue hat and white accessories.

At the reception in the church parlor following the ceremony, Mrs. M. D. Geiger, hostess, was assisted by Mrs. Frank Gillis, who poured, Mrs. Eugene McCall, who served portions of the wedding cake, Miss Carolyn Scruggs, who was in charge of the bride's book, and Miss Patsy Geiger. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Len S. Jones and children, Griffin, Gees, Jr. and Mrs. D. W. Jones and children, Ona, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson and children of Clewiston and Mr. and Mrs. Olen Johnson and children of West Palm Beach.

Following a wedding trip to the East Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are now at their home in Clewiston, where he is employed in the accounting department of the U. S. Sugar Corporation.

Carolina Farmers—

Gee, using a loudspeaker system, told listeners the cooperative Federal-State program is among the most important undertakings within the country and emphasized need for early completion of construction.

The tour is sponsored by the N. C. Department of Agriculture and N. C. State College Extension Service in cooperation with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Livestock and Agricultural Department.

Traveling from Lake Okeechobee in two buses, the group arrived at Canal Point shortly before noon Tuesday and visited packing plants in the area, proceeded to Pahokee after which they were invited to have lunch at the Belle Glade Country Club.

The tour also visited the Belle Glade packing and production areas.

Among places visited late Tuesday afternoon was the Everglades Experiment Station.

Carol Carpenter Is FFA Sweetheart

Miss Carol Carpenter won the honorary title of 1952 Sweetheart of the Pahokee Chapter, Future Farmers of America, with a record-breaking total of 30,300 votes. Miss Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Carpenter, was sponsored by the Sophomore Class.

Miss Rita Faye Hurt, sponsored by the Senior Class, was a close second in the contest, with only 2400 votes behind Miss Carpenter.

Immediately at the close of the contest Friday evening, the new sweetheart was crowned "queen of the ball" at the annual FFA Valentine dance in the County Park Community House at Canal Point. Admission and refreshments were free for all local high school students.

Alfred Meeks, chapter president, acted as master of ceremonies during the coronation ceremony. Miss Donna Jo Spooner, 1951 FFA Sweetheart, placed the crown on the head of the new queen, with Miss Rita Faye Hurt and the other contestants, the Misses Carolyn Scruggs, Joyce Lynn Hurt and Corrine Collins, acting as ladies in waiting. Songs were sung by the FFA Quartet, composed of Bobby Schroder, Dick Atkins, Millard Stanley and Charles McCurdy.

The chapter presented Miss Carpenter with an Elgin wrist watch and each of the losing contestants with a namesake bracelet.

Miss Carpenter will be eligible to compete in the sub-district sweetheart contest at Belle Glade. If she wins honors there, she will enter the district contest, and if again successful, she will be eligible for the State FFA Sweetheart contest. The expenses of Miss Carpenter and her chaperone will be assumed by the Pahokee FFA Chapter at all of these contests.

More Twin Calves

If Pahokee cattlemen continue producing twin calves regularly this new industry should become very profitable.

Recently Walter G. Hull reported the birth of two sets of twins in his pasture in one morning. On Tuesday of this week Lloyd Hundley, who has been in the cattle business for two years, reported one of his black angus heifers had given birth to twin calves, one female and one male. These were the first calves for the heifer and for the sire, a registered Hereford.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

"MIND" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon for all Christian Science churches next Sunday. The infinity and oneness of Mind, and the healing power of Mind are stressed.

A verse from Paul's message to the Romans provides the Golden Text: "Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Rom. 12: 2).

An account of Jesus' healing work is among the Bible readings: "And the people . . . followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing" (Luke 9: 11).

Correlative selections from "Science and Health" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The necessity for that Mind can do it; for Mind uplifting the race in father to the can impart purity instead of impurity, strength instead of weakness, and health instead of disease" (p. 371).

Palm Beach County Industry On Parade

Exposition Will Be Staged Nine Days

Exhibitors from all sections of the County will start work Monday on their booths for the Seventh annual Palm Beach County Exposition to be staged at International airport beginning Friday evening, February 29, under the auspices of the Resources Development Board and West Palm Beach chamber of commerce.

The nine-day show winding up March 8, will be one of the largest and most complete in the history of the county according to R. D. Hill and Frank J. Frazier, Jr., co-chairman of the event. Industrial, commercial, agricultural and electrical exhibits will again feature the Exposition and some of the finest features available in the country have been signed for the daily free shows.

Through the cooperation of county officials and Col. Glen R. Birchard, commanding officer at the air base, the same buildings and grounds will be used for the Exposition as in several years past, and according to Lamar Allen, director, there will be a number of new features this year.

Rides for the children will be set up on the grounds, but there will be no carnival concessions in connection with the show, he said.

Clean-up crews have been busy for several days getting the buildings and grounds in condition for exhibitors who will be notified they will be able to start work on their booths and exhibit spaces on Monday. In view of the fact that many are planning even more elaborate displays than in previous years, as much time as possible has been allowed for construction and decoration, Director Allen said.

Opening at 7 o'clock Friday evening, February 29, the exposition will run from 2 to 10 p. m. daily through Saturday, March 8.

McKethan also warned all his workers against taking active part in political campaigns although he urged them to vote on election day.

Museum To Be Scene Of Opera Feb. 26

SARASOTA—A. Everett Austin Jr., director of the John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art, announces that Richard Haggerty, conductor-composer, will conduct two 18th century operas in the only 18th century theatre in America, Feb. 26 through March 1, in Mozart's "Bastien and Bastienne", and Pergolesi's "The Maid Into Mistress."

A capacity audience of 200 will view for the first time in America five gala performances and one matinee of these delightful 18th century comedies on the stage of the theatre which has been carefully removed from Asolo, Italy, where it had stood for nearly 150 years within the castle, Caterina Cornaro, and is now installed within the walls of the Ringling Museum.

"Our plans for the opening are elaborate," said Mr. Austin, "and include participation of some foremost, nationally known artists, and help from others of equal repute."

Mr. Haggerty was guest conductor of the Sarasota Choral Society, season 1951-52. He is conductor of the all-girl Choral of the Holy Name Academy, San Antonio, Fla., is connected with music at St. Leo's Prep School, St. Leo, Fla., and is director of music for St. Martha's Choir, Sarasota.
